Re: Bankston v. Wyeth, et al., 3:05-CV-00240-WRW

Dear Messieurs McGowan and Morris:

I may be borrowing trouble by reacting sua sponte to your recent Complaint, filed on October 18, 2005.

As you know, I have been complaining about generic, omnidirectional complaints which do not appear to meet even the liberal requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. This particular complaint seems to be a classic example of what I have been complaining about.

If I am missing something, please disabuse me with a short letter/brief to be faxed to me, and the other appropriate recipients, by 5 p.m. this Halloween.

Boo,¹

/s/ Wm. R. Wilson, Jr.

Original to the Clerk of the Court
cc: Lead and Liaison Counsel
